

McGregor Library at
Antioch University Midwest

Purpose Statement

The library empowers the teaching mission and intellectual culture of the AUM community through availability to an organized collection of information, as well as instruction in its access, relevance and evaluation.

Vision Statement

The library will actively engage with students so they may develop into information fluent, socially aware lifelong learners. Such learners will be able to critically evaluate information to make a difference in the world around them. By creating a welcoming physical and virtual space, the library will become an active and vibrant part of the AUM academic community.

Library Director:

Steve Shaw

McGregor Library

(937) 769-1881

sshaw@antioch.edu

Instruction Sessions

Available for Your Class

- Finding books, articles and digital materials using WorldCat Local and OhioLINK
- Finding material located in the McGregor Library
- Searching basics for general and subject specific databases (EBSCO, ERIC, etc.)
- Digital information (Electronic Dissertations, open access information, E-books, etc.)
- Evaluating resources
- Locating full-text from indices and citations
- Building a search strategy; subject vs. keywords, Boolean logic, etc.
- Ethical use of information
- Citation management (RefWorks)
- Citation management (RefWorks)

Contact the library to arrange for an instruction session, or a one-on-one consultation.

(937) 769-1889

library.aum@antioch.edu

Or

(937) 769-1881

sshaw@antioch.edu

Library
Information:
Career Resources

McGregor Library at

Antioch University Midwest

900 Dayton St.

Yellow Springs OH 45387

(937) 769-1889

library.aum@antioch.edu

<http://midwest.antioch.edu/academics/academic-support/aum-library/>

Career Information...

where do I start? <http://midwest.antioch.edu/academics/academic-support/aum-library/>

INFORMATION ABOUT CAREERS

America's Career InfoNet (ACINET)

<http://www.careerinfonet.org/>

Comprehensive site for information about occupations, interviewing, job banks, employment projections, etc. Many of the other links in this brochure are from this site.

Explore Careers

<http://www.careeronestop.org/ExploreCareers/ExploreCareers.aspx>

Great starting point for emerging trends, green jobs, and various self-assessments.

*O*Net online*

<http://www.onetonline.org>

Put out by the department of Labor, this is one of the most comprehensive career sites out there. Allows for complex and detailed descriptions and comparisons of careers, employment and wage trends. State-by-state and national employment trends and salaries, as well as educational aspirations.

RELOCATING?

State Profiles

http://www.careerinfonet.org/select_state.asp?id=11&nodeid=12&next=state1

Thinking of moving? See how your target state compares to your home state in key data.

County Migration

<http://www.forbes.com/special-report/2011/migration.html>

Put out by Forbes, this site tracks county-to-county migration patterns. See which counties are attracting people. Data is from...the IRS.

Great Schools

<http://www.greatschools.org>

National not-for profit site (but has advertising) for comparing K12 schools and districts.

City Data

<http://city-data.com>

This site provides more information about an area, a city, or a zip code that you would ever reasonably want to know.

Ohio County Profiles

<http://www.development.ohio.gov/research/files/s0.htm>

Snapshot development profiles for all 88 counties.

WHERE TO FIND JOBS

Ohio Means Jobs!

<http://ohiomeansjobs.com/omj/>

Put out by the Ohio.gov site, this is a place for both employers as well job seekers to go. Upload your resume, search for positions, search employers and more. You can also create a profile to help employers search for you.

USA jobs

<http://www.usajobs.opm.gov/>

The primary source for all government (usually federal) jobs. Upload resumes and apply for jobs all on the same site. You can also create a profile for the government agencies when they are looking to hire.

One-Stop Career Centers

<http://www.servicelocator.org/onestopcenters.asp>

Helps you locate centers designed to provide resources for finding jobs and drafting your resume.

Military Transition

<http://www.careeronestop.org/militarytransition/>

Key to Career Success: services specifically for veterans and those service members transitioning from serving in the military to the workforce.

State of Ohio Jobs

<http://careers.ohio.gov/>

Ohio Public Library Online Resources

<http://www.oplin.org/databases/>

List of databases and resources free to all Ohio residents. Be sure to look under "Employment Resources and Adult Learning"

From the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Career Development Center.

Interview tips for teachers:

http://www4.uwm.edu/cdc/get_hired/upload/CDC_Teacher_Interview.pdf

