Tuition Refund for Withdrawal from the Term (all courses dropped) is prorated and credited to a student's account for courses dropped prior to or by the second class session, or the 14th day of enrollment, whichever is later. The refund is calculated from the date the student submits written notification of the withdrawal to the Student Services Office. The University provides a pro rata refund of unearned institutional charges to students who complete 80 percent or less of the period of attendance. If the University cancels or discontinues a course, the University will make a full refund of all associated tuition charges. Refunds are paid within 30 days of receipt of notification of cancellation or withdrawal. Please note that this new refund policy is effective beginning the Summer 2016 term.
