

2017 SYMPOSIUM ON LATINO
MENTAL HEALTH, EDUCATION,
AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Antioch University Community Hall

Saturday, March 18, 2017

8:30 AM - 2:00 PM

Leaders in Latino Mental Health

Reducing Mental Health Care Disparity in Latino Communities

Rut Gubkin, PhD, Psychologist, Scholar-Practitioner, Expert in Latina Mental Health, Expert in Trauma, Cultural Competence, Community Engagement, past Chair California Psychological Association Division VII Social Justice and Diversity, Recipient of the Distinguished Contribution to Psychology 2015 CPA Division VII and ACPA Award, 2016.

Miguel Gallardo, PsyD, Clinical Psychologist, Expert in Latino Mental Health, Professor of Psychology Pepperdine University, Fellow of the American Psychological Association, Founding Member and past President of the California Latino Psychological Association, currently a Governor with the California Board of Psychology.

William Flores, PhD, Provost and Associate Vice Chancellor Antioch University Santa Barbara, award winning Educator, past Deputy Secretary for New Mexico Department of Higher Education, Executive Vice President and Provost at New Mexico State University, past Dean of the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences at Cal State Northridge.

Mariela Marin, MA, LMFT, Expert in Latina Mental Health, LGBTQ Community Engagement, past Director of Clinical Training for the Pacific Pride Foundation and Antioch University Santa Barbara MACP Program, currently Co-Director of the Community Counseling and Education Center.

Gustavo Arellano, Editor of the Orange County Weekly, Recipient of the 2006 and 2008 Association of Alternative Weeklies Award for Best Column, the Los Angeles Press Club's 2007 President's Award, the 2007 Impacto Award from the National Hispanic Media Coalition, and the California Latino Legislative Caucus 2008 Spirit Award.

"We cannot seek achievement for ourselves and forget about progress and prosperity for our community . . . Our ambitions must be broad enough to include the aspirations and needs of others, for their sake and for our own."

~ Cesar E. Chavez, Community Activist

REGISTRATION FREE

Contact Stephanie Holland at sholland@antioch.edu or 805-962-8179. CE hours upon request for Psychologists, MFTs, LCSWs, and LPCCs.

For More Information and Registration: 805-962-8179 or online at <http://www.antiochsb.edu/2016/2017-antioch-university-santa-barbara-symposium-latino-mental-health-education-community-engagement/>. Continuing Education (4 hours) available for $30. Antioch University Santa Barbara (AUSB) is approved by the California Psychological Association (CPA) to provide continuing professional education for psychologists. The California Board of Behavioral Sciences (BBS) now recognizes CPA continuing education credit for renewal of all their licenses. AUSB maintains responsibility for this program and its contents.