Experiencing Somatic Psychotherapy

Friday, June 9, 2017

9am - 4pm

602 Anacapa St, Santa Barbara, CA

Presented by AUSB Master's in Clinical Psychology program, this unique one-day seminar will explore current developments in the area of somatic psychology through a combined seminar/workshop learning experience. Faculty and practitioner-scholars will share expertise on the intersection of interpersonal neurobiology, attachment, sensorimotor psychotherapy, and the arts. Participants will learn the essentials of integrating somatic practice within a range of areas of clinical work, particularly in healing trauma.
