

Ubuntu

“I am what I am because of who we all are!”

The Office of Diversity Services promotes educational and cultural enrichment programming and activities for all of its students, while at the same time, increasing cross-cultural understanding for the total University community.

Indigenous Peoples' Day

October 12

Antioch Alum Winona LaDuke is guest speaker at Seattle City Hall, 600 4th Ave, Bertha Knight Landes Room. Free and open to the public from 11:30 am – 1:30 pm. There will be refreshments. LaDuke earned her M.A. in Community Economic Development at Antioch University.

Diversity Training for Students!

November 5

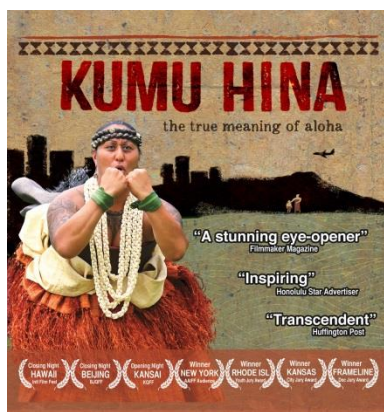

AUS is offering diversity training by Dr. Caprice D. Hollins, noted psychologist and former Director of Equity, Race & Learning Support for Seattle Public Schools. This training is designed for students and staff. Training is 1 pm–3pm in Room 200. All are welcome! There will be refreshments.

FILM: Kumu Hina

November 19

Kumu Hina - A transgender Native Hawaiian teacher inspires a young girl to fulfill her destiny of leading the school's male hula troupe, even as she struggles to find love and a committed relationship in her own life. There will be refreshments. GLC Alum and CIS doctoral candidate Gerry Ebaleroza-Tunnell will lead the after-viewing discussion from 11 am – 1 pm. Room 200.

ANTIOCH UNIVERSITY SEATTLE