

SPONSORED BY

VETERAN CENTER & AUS VETS LUMINOUS GRANT WRITING One Day— SEMINAR/WORKSHOP

*EMPOWERING
STUDENTS WITH KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS!*

*Grant Writing 101
For Student Veterans at Antioch University Seattle!*

All are Welcome a Campus wide Event!

VETERAN CENTER AT ANTIOCH
UNIVERSITY

GRANT WRITING WORKSHOP
MONDAY 15, 2017
From: 12pm to 4pm
Room 202 A&B 4pm Q&A

Phone: 206-420-9619

Facebook: AUS VETERANS

E-mail: .floveheart@antioch.edu

m

Presenter: K. Sylla Fury has been a writer and technical editor for more than 25 years. In 2002, she received a PhD in rhetoric and professional communication. Career highlights include serving as the grant writer for the natural resources research teams at New Mexico State University and as the web content for the National Ignition Facility at Lawrence Livermore National Lab. She is currently a Psy.D student in clinical psychology at AUS.

Participants will learn how to

- Look for grants that will help further their goals
- Research prospective funders and agencies
- Create a project team when it's required
- Write in a compelling way
- Avoid common mistakes and

Complete any grant requirements required if funded, including SMART metrics to track SUCCESS

ANTIOCH UNIVERSITY

SEATTLE