

Wolf Ridge Partnership

Coursework - Environmental Education

A successful candidate in the joint program earning an M.S. in Environmental Studies with a concentration in Environmental Education will complete 12 credits from the graduate-naturalist program courses listed below delivered by Wolf Ridge faculty at Wolf Ridge followed by 24 credits taken at Antioch University New England.

Wolf Ridge Residency followed by AUNE Residency

Wolf Ridge courses (12 credits)

- ESC 5501 Community Ecology (3)
- ESE 5020 Foundations of Environmental Sustainability (3)
- ESE 5470 Environmental Education Methods (3)
- ESE 6960 Internship & Seminar (3)

Antioch University New England courses (24 credits)

Pick two:

- ESC 5440 Leadership for Change (3)
- ESC 5720 Earth Systems & Climate Change (3)
- ESC 6010 Political Economy & Sustainability (3)
- ES 6990E Masters Projects/Thesis or ES 6000 Collaborative Service Initiative (3)
- Methods & skills courses in the Environmental Education concentration, in consultation with your academic advisor (15)

AUNE Residency followed by Wolf Ridge Residency

Antioch University New England courses (24 credits)

Pick two:

- ESC 5440 Leadership for Change (3)
- ESC 5720 Earth Systems & Climate Change (3)
- ESC 6010 Political Economy & Sustainability (3)
- ES 6960 Internship (3)
- Methods & skills courses in the Environmental Education concentration, in consultation with your academic advisor (15)

Wolf Ridge courses (12 credits)

- ESC 5500 Community Ecology (3)
- ESE 5020 Foundations of Environmental Ed (3)
- ESE 5470 Environmental Education Methods (3)
- ESE 6960 Internship & Seminar (3)