

ANTIOCH UNIVERSITY

SEATTLE

CONSORTIUM AGREEMENT INSTRUCTIONS

1. Meet with your Antioch advisor to determine what classes at other colleges will transfer to your program at Antioch. For credits to be transferable:
  - a. The college must be regionally accredited
  - b. Courses must be numbered 100 or above for undergraduates; 500 or above for graduates.
  - c. The grade earned must be a C or better for undergraduates; B or better for graduates.
  - d. An official transcript must be sent to the Registrar at AUS upon completion of the course(s).
  - e. For undergraduates, the AUS transfer credit policy allows a maximum of 120 lower division transfer credits (100-299 courses).
  - f. For graduate students, consult with your advisor and department on the transfer credits allowed as the maximum permitted varies by for each program.
2. Complete Section II of the consortium agreement with your advisor and submit it to the AUS Financial Aid Office. Be sure that both you and your advisor sign the page, and that you have listed the course number(s), name(s), and the total number of credits you plan to take.
3. Register for the same courses at the host college. Submit a copy of the registration statement to the AUS Financial Aid Office.
4. Make arrangements to pay your tuition at the host college. Some colleges will wait until you receive your financial aid refund from AUS. If the host college cannot wait for you to receive your refund, you are responsible for paying your tuition by the host college's payment deadline. Please note that Antioch will not pay your tuition or transfer funds to your host college. If you have questions about the timing or amount of your refund, please contact the AUS Financial Aid Office.
5. Once the AUS Financial Aid Office receives your completed consortium agreement and registration statement, your financial aid will be reviewed and adjusted, if necessary, based on the total number of credits you are taking at Antioch and the host college.

Please note that the agreement and proof of registration must be received by the AUS financial aid office by the last day to add credits at AUS (as published by the Registrar). Late agreements will not be accepted.

6. If you drop any courses, you must notify the AUS Financial Aid Office immediately.
7. After completion of your course(s), submit an unofficial grade transcript to the AUS Financial Aid Office to avoid any delays of financial aid for the following quarter. When you are ready to transfer credits to Antioch, request an official transcript from the host college and submit it to the AUS Registrar's Office.
