

Admissions Essay
M.A. in Clinical Psychology

The Admissions essay must be typed, 12pt font and double-spaced, with your name typed on the top of each page. The admissions reviewer(s) is interested in your capacity for self-reflection and your ability to think critically, as well as your writing ability. Some people may be asked to take steps to improve their writing skills when they enter the program so that they are writing at the graduate level.

Admissions Essay (650 words) – Please respond to the following prompt:

Building on your life experiences (for example, professional training in psychology or other areas of interest, volunteer/community work, teaching, etc), how do you imagine an MA in Clinical Psychology will advance your professional goals? What contributions do you envision making in this field?
