

Clemente Veterans' Initiative

Exploring the military experience through the Humanities

Hosted by Antioch University Seattle

APPLICATION FORM

INFORMATION PROVIDED ON THIS APPLICATION FORM WILL BE KEPT STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL.

The Clemente Veteran's Initiative at Antioch University Seattle encourages and accepts applications from all veterans, regardless of race, gender identity, service years, deployment history, disability status, or discharge status. The course is free and seeks to serve veterans who are challenged by their transition from soldier to civilian, and who are looking for an engaged community of peers to explore great moments of history, art, philosophy and literature.

For those who aspire to attend college in the future, the Clemente Veterans' Initiative also offers an opportunity to experience a college classroom and earn transferrable college credits at no cost, and without using any VA benefits.

All books and instructional materials, as well as childcare and transportation as needed, are provided at no cost to students. Light refreshments provided at each meeting.

The course takes place at Antioch University Seattle, Belltown Campus: 2400 3rd Ave. #200, Seattle, WA 98121. Classes are held on Tuesday and Thursday nights 7-9:30pm from January 15th to June 20th, 2019.

Once we have received your application we will contact you for an interview.

You can email completed applications to Dr. Edward Durgan Academic Director:
