BRUCE AND ARLENE CRANDALL SOCIAL COURAGE AWARD

The Bruce and Arlene Crandall Social Courage award acknowledges the extraordinary bravery and service of Colonel Bruce P. Crandall, a decorated Vietnam War veteran, and his wife Arlene, honored by the US Army and US Navy for her notable achievements. Their son, Antioch University Board of Governor, Steven B. Crandall, founded the award. The award reflects Antioch University's commitment to supporting incoming students who have participated in national service such as the U.S. military, AmeriCorps, City Year, and Peace Corps.

The $5,000 scholarship will be awarded to one Antioch University student accepted for the Summer/Fall MFA 2022 term, GSLC Summer 2022 Trimester, Fall 2022 Quarter, or the Fall 2022 Semester that has demonstrated social courage by serving in the US Military or has contributed to one of the following national service programs: AmeriCorps, City Year, Peace Corps, and VISTA by completing at least one year of full-time service.

About Antioch University:

Inspired by the pioneering work of 19th-century educator Horace Mann, Antioch University promotes higher education that incorporates the common good, values experiential learning, and fosters a diverse academic community. Antioch University provides learner-centered education to empower students with the knowledge and skills to lead meaningful lives and to advance social, economic, and environmental justice.

SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA

- To apply, please complete pages 3-4 of this application. A full checklist of the application requirements is listed on page 3 of this document. All scholarship application materials must be submitted by the deadline listed below.
- You must be a new Antioch University student accepted to a degree program for Summer/Fall MFA 2022 term, GSLC Summer 2022 Trimester, Fall 2022 Quarter, or the Fall 2022 Semester. You must have submitted all admission application materials to the Admissions Office by the scholarship deadline.
- Financial need may be considered as a tiebreaker, so we encourage you to complete the free financial aid application process by the scholarship application deadline. The 2022-23 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) can be completed online via www.studentaid.gov.
- Antioch University scholarships are competitive; a limited number of students are selected for each scholarship. All applicants are notified of their status, typically within a few weeks of the application deadline.
- To be eligible, you must meet the minimum credit load requirements: 12 credits for undergraduate students or 6 credits for graduate students.

Scholarship Deadline: September 15, 2022
