MAT Scholarship Opportunities

Through mentorship in the field and small, collaborative courses, the MAT Program focuses on social justice, anti-racism, and critical reflection to help you become a teacher for change.

Overview

• Master of Arts in Teaching with K-8 teacher certification
• 5 quarters, including all coursework and fieldwork
• Cohort model
• Low faculty-to-student ratio
• Paraprofessionals and others working in educational settings are encouraged to apply
• Courses are held two evenings per week to accommodate working people
• Financial aid is available
• BIPOC applicants are eligible for the Martinez Fellowship Program
• Students can earn additional education funding through our partnership with Washington Campus Coalition for the Public Good

For More Information

at.antioch.edu/TeachSeattle admissions@antioch.edu

We look forward to helping you become the teacher you always wanted to be!