As women across the globe continue to face challenges and obstacles holding them back from leadership roles, Antioch University is offering cutting edge online Women in Leadership Certificate Programs to help women overcome those challenges. The program brings together mid-career women who are clearly aware of the professional challenges that they face—and to provide these women opportunities to enhance their confidence and leadership skills within a social justice framework.

Overarching Goal: To develop and hone your leadership strengths and skills within the workplace and/or community to support your leadership development in a time of social change.

LIVE | ONLINE VIRTUAL | INTERACTIVE

DATES AND TIMES

Online Residency 1:
September 10 & 24, 2022
9:00am–12:30pm | break |
1:00pm–2:30pm (Pacific Time)
12:00pm–3:30pm | break |
4:00 pm–5:30pm (Eastern Time)

Book Club Date:
Inter-Residency 1: Wed, Sept. 28 | 4–5:30pm (Pacific Time)

Online Residency 2:
October 8 & 22, 2022
9:00am–12:30pm | break |
1:00pm–2:30pm (Pacific Time)
12:00pm–3:30pm | break |
4:00 pm–5:30pm (Eastern Time)

Book Club Date:
Inter-Residency 2: Wed, Oct. 26 | 4-5:30pm (Pacific Time)

Online Residency 3:
November 5 & 9, 2022
9:00am–12:30pm | break |
1:00pm–2:30pm (Pacific Time)
12:00pm–3:30pm | break |
4:00 pm–5:30pm (Eastern Time)

COST OF PROGRAM: $2000 The cost of the certificate program can be broken into multiple payments.

APPLY FOR A SCHOLARSHIP NOW! A limited number of scholarships to offset part of the tuition costs are available. To apply, submit an essay (250-300 words) to jreid@antioch.edu addressing the following:

Describe how you will apply the skills and knowledge you acquire from participation in the program in your current or future career. The final deadline for essay submissions is July 29, 2022 or sooner for eligibility.
Women in Leadership Graduate Certificate Program

Enhancing Your Leadership for Social Change

Enhancing your leadership identity takes strategy and cultivation. This course provides opportunities to develop your change-making skills, resiliency strategies, and civic knowledge through skill development and theoretical understanding of various modes of social change.

Facilitated by Anissa Stewart, PhD.

ONLINE / ASYNCHRONOUS

3 Semester Credits | Cost $1200

Course opens September 12, 2022 | 7 weeks

Optimizing Leadership Skills: A Woman’s Guide to Claiming Space

We live in a world that rewards women for making themselves small. This course uses the bestselling book, “A Woman’s Guide To Claiming Space” to do a deep dive into the five aspects of claiming space. These include enhanced body language techniques, stopping self-sabotage, thwarting sexual harassment and embracing intersectionality. It will explore both big ideas and actionable tools which empower women both professionally and personally. Synchronous live weekly meetings. Facilitated by Eliza VanCort, Speaker, Teacher, Thought-Leader, Best-Selling Author.

ONLINE/SYNCHRONOUS (LIVE)

3 Semester Credits | Cost $1200
Course opens May 9, 2022

Leadership from the Soul: Living Your Purpose

Effective and strategic leadership is achieved by living one’s purpose. This course provides students opportunities to enhance self-awareness and focus on what matters to them. Understanding identity and values helps inform one’s purpose. Students begin by learning about identity formation and completing an inclusive personal values assessment designed to help source what is important to them. Students will understand what drives effective leadership and decision-making.

Through the construction of a “purpose to impact plan”, students will attain the ability to design effective and strategic leadership strategies to impact change within the workplace.

Seven weeks, ONLINE Asynchronous with virtual office hours (3-5 hours of instruction a week)

3 Semester Credits | $1200
Course opens July 11, 2022

Please contact Dr. Jacqueline Reid at jreid@antioch.edu for more information.

Women in Leadership Graduate Certificate Program

EARN UNIVERSITY CREDITS | 9 GRADUATE LEVEL CREDITS | 3 COURSES / $3000*

The Women In Leadership Graduate Certificate can be used as a potential pathway into Antioch’s Graduate Management Programs by applying the coursework completed in this certificate toward our master’s level programs. Students who complete all three courses for the certificate will be eligible to apply the 9 credits earned to the MBA, MA in Nonprofit Management, or Master of Human Administration.

*Sign up for all three courses at once and receive the discounted price of $3,000.

Antioch University

at.antioch.edu/wil-grad-cert