

ANTIOCH UNIVERSITY

SEATTLE

SANDRA MEGGERT SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship has been generously funded by a former Antioch University Seattle Faculty in the MA Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program, Dr. Sandra (Sandi) Meggert. Sandi was a passionate advocate for the counseling profession; she was committed to furthering access to, the persistence of, and the meaningful impact of the work of counselors. She published books on the importance of humor in our field and was always there for her students and colleagues. In honor of her spirit of giving and contributions to Antioch, this scholarship seeks to bestow a one time, $5,000 scholarship to a student who identifies as Black, Indigenous, and/or a Person of Color (BIPOC) and is entering their first year in either the MA CMHC or PhD CES programs.

SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA

- You must submit all items required for a complete application, as outlined on the checklist on page two, by the quarterly application deadline.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

- ☐ Please complete and attach this cover page to your application.
- ☐ The scholarship requires two short-essay responses of approximately 250 words each. Please attach your responses to your application. The questions are as follows:
 - 1) Please describe how this scholarship will positively impact your ability to join either the MA CMHC or PhD CES Program at Antioch University Seattle.
 - 2) This scholarship has been generously funded by a former Antioch University Seattle Faculty in the MA Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program, Dr. Sandra (Sandi) Meggert. Sandi was a passionate advocate for the counseling profession; she was committed to furthering access to, the persistence of, and the meaningful impact of the work of counselors. She published books on the importance of humor in our field and was always there for her students and colleagues. Sandi was kind, inviting, had an infectious laugh and a broad smile that could light up a room, and even during difficult conversations acknowledged the best in others. We would love to hear how you will seek to continue any number of these qualities in your work as a counselor/counselor educator, though importantly, personalizing them as your own.
- ☐ Finally, please review and complete this student certification before submitting the application:

To the best of my knowledge, I certify the information provided in this application is correct. If I am awarded a scholarship, I understand I must notify the Financial Aid Office of any changes in my education plan. These include, but are not limited to, changing academic programs, reducing credit hours, or withdrawing from school. I understand that it may affect my scholarship award.
